Hello again from sunny Florida.

Our Mid Winter in

Mobile Alabama was a great success.

Audrey & I enjoyed seeing everyone having a great time, great company, great food but too many moon pies.

The Mardi Gras was truly an experience for all of those IASYC members in attendance followed by the Fantasy fun ship for a short cruise. A good time was had by all. Our Mid Winter general meeting was productive. Thanks goes to all of the past IASYC Commodores who took part and helped with their knowledge and experience. The officers were elected. My congratulations to all.

Hope to see you in Toronto, Canada.

Our Commodore-Elect is working very hard so that every one will have a great time. REMEMBER you will need a passport. Also, plan an extra day or two to visit the Niagara Falls and Wine Country just outside the Toronto area.

I have enjoyed steering our ship from the bridge and I am looking forward to taking my seat on the fantail. Hope to sea many nobles and their mates In Toronto.

Yours in the faith,
Dan Dyle,
Commodore 2009-2010

SHRINERS, What it's REALLY all about.

As I was checking out of the Marriott in Mobile, Alabama, following our Midwinter Get-To-Gether, the young lady asked me if I was with the Shriners. I replied, "Yes", and she said that she knew the Shriners were wonderful people. She then began to tell me this story:

"I would just like to thank you so much for your organization. When my cousin was about 18 months old, he pulled a skillet off the stove that had hot grease in it. Needless to say, it burned half of the top of his head. He was treated here in Mobile at U.S.A. Burn Center, but after treatment he was left with shiny scar tissue. (around 1990)
About 3 years later, he and his family moved to Cincinnati, Ohio.
When he was about 5, he was approached by someone who would change his life forever; a member of the Shriners! In less than two years, he had saline balloons implanted to promote growth of his hair and scalp, and the scar tissue was cut away and a new hairline was made. He looks as good as new. He's 22 years old now, and NO ONE, absolutely NO ONE would ever know he encountered any of this . . . and it was all because of this spectacular organization! Yes, you all are truly a blessing."

(from Krystle, at Marriott's Riverview Plaza Hotel in Mobile, Alabama)

If the article above brings tears to your eyes, join me in this feeling.

Ahoy Noble Mariners

3/03/2010

We just returned from the Mid-Winter meetings in Mobile, AL and I want to take a moment to thank Dan and Audrey for a job well done. The Mardi Gras celebration and parades were very enjoyable. We collected our share of beads. The evening prelude of the King and Queens Ball was very elegant to say the least. We learned that the gowns that the debutantes were wearing cost upwards from $10,000. It was an extravagant production.

The meetings were informative and you will learn that Klaus was elected to finish the year in Torry's absence as Vice-Commodore and Commodore in Toronto. Congratulations Klaus. There is still some confusion concerning housing at the Imperial Session but the Bridge is on track with the assistance of our Canadian Brothers from the north. Read the Yachtsman for further information and please do not delay in making your reservations it will be most helpful for those responsible for scheduling.

I also want to tell you that if you were unable to attend the Mid-Winter this year, you may also have missed a great cruise. We boarded in Mobile aboard the Carnival Cruise Line and sailed two days to Cozumel, Mexico where we had a port of call and were able to go ashore for the day. My son and daughter-in-law, Tom and Kathy, went with us and they went scuba diving and sailing on a catamaran while on the island. This was their first cruise and they are ready to re-book. Lady Ann entered the Slot Tournament and won us $500 in the Ships casino which allowed me to purchase two pair of full quill ostrich boots. After a great day in Mexico we re-boarded the ship and cruised another two days back to Mobile. We certainly enjoyed our time this year and I can tell you that the cost of the cruise for both of us was only $710 for both fares as a couple ($360 a piece) no place could you beat the price. If you haven't yet you certainly should consider taking advantage of these trips with IASYC.

We are looking forward to our trip to Canada and hope you will join us at the annual Change of Watch, the annual changing of the Bridge Officers installation Banquet. A few of us are Delegates to the Colorado Corporation and may be busy attending meetings, however we will spend as much of our time at the planned IASYC functions as possible. There is also going to be a South American contingency from Bolivia and Uruguay we will need to entertain but we will be staying at the same hotel as IASYC.

I want to take a moment to congratulate Dave Harris for being elected to the position of Secretary of IASYC for the ensuing year. We are very fortunate to have Dave and his lady with our group. They have shown their dedication and willingness to support IASYC and I look forward to sharing the Bridge with them.

And now briefly, for those of you who may have heard of our auto accident, I want to dispel any rumors. We drove our car to Mobile and as we were returning after the cruise we were in a terrible auto crash in North Carolina. We were heading north toward Atlanta and were inadvertently run off the road. Ann was driving and did a wonderful job of keeping the SUV from flipping over. We took out about a mile of guard rail and did $13,000 damage to our car we were able to hobble it home after a night in at the Holiday Inn near the Georgia boarder. So we have been busy car shopping but were fortunate to buy Ann a nice car and Saturday so we are back in the loop. After the crash we stopped at a gas station to assess the damage and a young man came and was talking to us about our experience. After Ann explained the horrific experience in tears, he asked if she thought that the good Lord was riding with us. To which she exclaimed "without a doubt". The young man replied "well you better let Him ride with me before you kill Him".

Until we meet again please boat safe and don't text while driving.

Brisk breeze, calm seas, and a safe voyage;

See you all in Toronto.

It is a great honor for me to be elected Vice - Commodore of the IASYC. I accept this position with a heavy heart since I am replacing a good friend, Torry Stevens.

How time flies, it seems not long ago that we went to the Imperial in San Antonio, TX.

The Mid Winter in Mobile, AL was a great success. Commodore Dyle and lady Audrey made us all welcome and as always provided for an excellent Hospitality Room and an interesting program. The Mardi- Gras in Mobile was a great success.

We will have a memorial for Torry at the Toronto Dinner Cruise. I still miss my tall friend that kept talking about pair of boots when I'm sure he really meant to say about?

I am now Vice-Commodore Elect, and I thank you for your confidence in me. Sarah & I are looking forward to Toronto, as neither of us has been there before. Meeting new people that speak a little differently, but about the same is really fun. We also plan to stay for a few extra days and see the sights, like the Canadian side of Niagara Falls; of course from the Maid of the Mist. Your welcome to tag along.

Hope to Sea you in Toronto!!
We are a family unit of friends, first, last, and always!
Remember, friends are family you get to pick!!
Fraternally Yours,
Bob Omer

To All,
Greetings from sunny South West Florida!

Our ships store wishes to thank you for your purchases made in Mobile.
You made it worthwhile lugging all that stuff out there!

Sales were good considering most of you were busy with all the celebrating!
We currently have 30 pounds of beads in stock. Let me know what colors you want!

Here's Something to think about, Father's Day is coming up!
Why not get that special Noble a gift from our IASYC store?
Something he'll enjoy for years to come!

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude in electing me as your Secretary - Treasurer. I look forward to working with our officers as well as you our members. My number one goal is to build upon our membership. Only with your continued support can IASYC maintain it's status as the Premier Shrine Yachting Association in the world!
